SENIOR BALL BIDS OPEN TO STUDENT BODY NOON TODAY AT $2.50

Senior Ball bids will go on sale to the student body at noon today, selling for $2.50, including taxes.

The "Silver Ball" will be held Saturday night in the main dining room of the Hotel Sainte Claire, where decorations of silver stars and flowers will carry out the theme.

Music will be furnished by Frank Beasley and his 12-piece orchestra. Beasley played for the recent Spardi Gras dance, featuring sweet and swing music.

FORMAL

The annual ball is the biggest formal of the school year, and is the first affair on the Senior Week schedule. For other members of the student body, it climaxes three quarters of college fun, and serves as the last "fling" before finals.

Chairman Gerry Reynolds urges all seniors as well as other students, to attend the ball. "It's our big chance to prove that we can keep up Spartan tradition by having a Senior Ball in wartime that matches any we've had in normal times."

GUESTS

Students are advised that they can bring guests who are not registered here, the only requirement being that one member of each couple is an ASB member.

Assisting Miss Reynolds as co-chairman is Jo Falcone, while Leola Conklin is decorations chairman, aided by Winnie Peterson, Dave Coen, and Jeanne Wright. Bids chairman is Barbara Onyett assisted by Jean Webster. The music committee is headed by Phil Sykes, and includes Jeanette Owen and Wilma Sabelman. Patrons chairman is Barbara Holbrook, aided by Pat O'Donnell.

Drama Students Act In Series Of Plays

By GEM KALLAM

Would you like to see some of your fellow students display their histrionic abilities . . . in other words, acting and directing talents?

An opportunity to witness results of studies made this quarter by the Drama department's acting and directing classes will be offered this week and next, starting today. Setting for the performances will be the Little Theater.

"Overtones," first presentation on the schedule was given at 9 o'clock this morning, with Barbara Trelease directing, and Muriel Winter, Elda Beth Payne, Betty Jones, and Dorothy Byers making up the cast.

Second on the list is a comedy titled, "The Purple Door Knob," which will be presented at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning. Jo Falcone will serve as the director, and Margaret Moore, Phyllis McDonald, and Virginia Sherwood will be the featured players.

Phyllis Wakefield will direct

COLLEGE GRANTED $700,000 MORE TO PURCHASE LAND

San Jose State college has been assured of an additional $700,000 with which to purchase land for post-war expansion with passage of a bill calling for a State appropriation of that amount.

The bill was under consideration in a special meeting of the State legislature this month, and now needs Governor Warren's signature.

Money allotted will be used to buy lots from San Carlos to San Fernando streets and from Seventh to Ninth. Also included in the purchase plans will be San Jose High school property and the Student Union.

An allotment of $300,000 was granted the college at a previous session of the legislature. Request for $1,484,000 for buildings will be considered at the regular session in January, 1945.

Land will be purchased immediately, but no building can be done until after the war.

War Show To Climax War Loan Campaign Friday In Quad

As a climax to a week of concentrated campaigning in the Fifth War Loan drive, the Rally committee will present a complete war show on Washington Square Friday at 12:30 o'clock.

Army scout cars equipped with crews and all weapons will be brought to the campus from San Francisco. Included in the weapons will be machine guns, rifles, practice grenades, smoke screens, and the world-famous rocket gun, the "Bazooka."

Students will be given complete demonstrations of the use of each weapon; firing tactics will be demonstrated by the soldiers with the use of blank ammunition.

The show is being given by the Rally committee in conjunction with the Veterans and Spartan Spears who will handle war bond and stamp sales Friday.

Seniors Discuss Plans At Meeting

Seniors will discuss the complete plans for all fourth-year functions in orientation tomorrow at 12:30 in the Little Theater.

First activity to be held will be the Senior Ball Saturday night, followed by Baccalaureate Sunday, and Senior Scram on Sunday evening.

$3,314.50 In War Stamps Sold Friday; First Day Of Fifth War Bond Drive

Purchases of war bonds and stamps amounting of $3314.50 marked the conclusion of the first day of the campus Fifth War Bond drive to be continued today with Delta Beta Sigma and Beta Chi Sigma members acting as official salesmen.

Bond salesmen last Friday were the members of Ero Sophian and Kappa Kappa Sigma. Co-chairmen in charge of activities of the day were Anna Mae Diffin and Jo Ann Sweeney of Ero Sophian, and Peggy Akard and Laurie Fear of Kappa Kappa Sigma.

Winners of the $25 war bond raffled off by the two organizations

COUNCIL HAS OPEN MEETING

Completion of the duties of the old Student Council and initiation of the work of the new will occur this afternoon at an open meeting in the Student Union at 4 o'clock.

At the meeting, the Student Council will clear the desk of all overhanging business so that the new Council may start with a clean slate in the fall.

The revised constitution by-laws will be voted on at the meeting and reports on the Recognition day assembly and date book will be heard. Bond Drive Chairman Howard Riddle will report on progress of the campaign to sell $25,000 in War bonds and stamps by June 16.

Members of the new Council will be at the meeting to learn procedure and to get acquainted with business at hand. Among the first matters which the new body will have to take care of in the fall will be review of the budget and appointing of committee heads.

For several weeks the Council has been working on the budget recommendations for next year. At last week's meeting, the job was completed and the budget was laid aside for approval by the new Council.

were Mr. and Mrs. Milton Lewis, Sr., of Santa Clara. A chance on the bond was given with each purchase made during the day.

Members of the two organizations wore signs on the front and back hems of their skirts bearing the legend "Don't hem and haw. Buy bonds." The little booth in the Library archway was the official bond selling counter.

Co-chairmen for today's campaign are Lauraine Manley of Delta Beta Sigma and Jim Howie of Beta Chi Sigma. Their task is to lower by as much as possible the amount needed to meet the $25,000 quota set for the whole six-day drive.

In the five days remaining, a total of $21,685.50 in the sale of stamps and bonds must be raised to fill the quota. Howard Riddle, general chairman of the campaign, says, "San Jose State college has never failed to go over the top when a quota was set and the record mustn't be broken now."

Zeta Chi and Sappho will have charge of the sales tomorrow and the co-chairmen will be Rae Klason, Malkah Wolper, and Barbara Duncan.

Teacher Training

Starting today there will be no teacher training conferences for the rest of the quarter, according to Miss Helen Dimmick, dean of women. Sign-ups for today will be interviewed, but no more.

Art Students Have Pot Luck Supper

A pot luck supper in the form of a "patio buffet" will be held tomorrow on the patio of the Art building for all students interested in art, all art majors, art minors, occupational therapy majors, and any student enrolled in any art class.

An array of hot weather specialties such as cokes, olives, cakes, sandwiches, potato chips, and the like will be served between 3:30 and 5 o'clock.

Interested persons should sign up immediately on the bulletin board in the hall outside of the Art seminar, opposite the item of food which they can most easily bring.

Those who do not wish to bring food can pay 50 cents instead.

Shirley Forbes is general chairman of the affair, and is also in charge of entertainment. Assisting her are Dorothy Herger, refreshment committee chairman, and Edith Thomsen and Pat Rhodes who are handling invitations.

Bob Moon is games chairman. Members of the faculty of the Art department, Miss Helen Dimmick, and Mrs. Izetta Pritchard have been invited to attend.

Opportunity Knocks

Preaching can be boring and also a sure method of "losing friends and alienating people." However, there are occasions when some good, old-fashioned preaching just fills the bill and this is one. It does not concern some new topic about which we know nothing, but refers to one that has been the subject of a great amount of propaganda, that is, propaganda of the positive type.

To finally reach the object of all this digression, this is another exhortation to boost the sale of war bonds. This is a preaching for which there needs to be no apology. In the face of present conditions, there can be no "other side" to this discussion. We must buy bonds. That is an undeniable fact.

Recognizing this obvious truth, it follows logically that there is no reason to urge people to do what they know they must. However, human nature is "distinguished" by a regrettable tendency to ignore, to procrastinate, and to forget, so this is a reminder of the overwhelming obligation which we all owe. We must never forget that debt!

Paying it off in war bonds will only partially discharge the obligation, which can never be fully repaid in the moral sense, because it is not humanly possible to replace the lost years of youth, the broken bodies and minds, and the permanent separation of friends and families.

These losses will scar the hearts of many in the coming years. By remembering, by caring, by lending our support, now and always, perhaps we can alleviate some of this suffering, prevent some of the bitterness, and take a share in this burden, which should not be carried on the shoulders of a few. Realizing all this and all that has been left unsaid, it is impossible for us not to act immediately. This is an opportunity. Do not make the criminal mistake of letting it slip through your grasp!

Florence Saecker Engagement Told At Art Meeting

A surprise engagement was the highlight of Smock and Tam's last meeting held June 5 at the home of Mrs. Ruth Turner, faculty advisor of the art society.

After a brief business meeting, refreshments were served. Culminating the evening was the passing of the traditional five pound box of chocolates, announcing the engagement of Florence Saecker to Ralph Offutt, a Seabee, BM2c, who is stationed at Port Hueneme in Southern California. His sister is Helen Offutt, a student here.

the third comedy, "Fourteen," at 9 on Friday, and stellar roles will be performed by Fleda Krone, Nettie Suhlisen and Marjorie Moore.

Winding up the productions will be "Joint Owners in Spain," presented on Monday, at 9 o'clock with Carmendale Fernandes directing. Audrey Fisher, Caroline St. John, and Barbara Stewart will be the actresses.

Each play will last about a half hour. Anyone interested is invited to be in the Little Theater at the times and dates noted. Although no attempt will be made to have scenery or special lighting, the performers are planning costumes appropriate to the parts they will play, according to Hugh Gillis, who is the instructor for both the acting and directing classes.

Beautiful Bee's Baffled Ballplayers Behave Brilliantly But Bobble Bunts, Bounce Bloopers; Badly Beaten

Harold "Happy" Hyman's Eleventh Street Sluggers took advantage of Bee Laurence's "fumbleized" Spartan Daily softball team to chalk up a 10 to 3 victory last Friday afternoon. As expected, Theta Mu Sigma toyed with the cellar-dwelling Avalons in grabbing an easy 14 to 6 decision in the second game of the doubleheader.

Delta Beta Sigma Names New Officers

Delta Beta Sigma elected new officers for the next school year at a recent meeting of the society.

New officers are Dorothy Simmonds, president; Lucille Rose, vice president; Leah Hardcastle, corresponding secretary; Mary Lou Montgomery, recording secretary; Ruth McCue, inter-society representative; Jane Turner, rush captain; Frieda Hinck, sergeant at arms; Lauraine Manley, AWA representative; Cecile Monahan, reporter; Peggy McCue and Marge Myer, Red Cross; and Barbara Saxton, historian.

Delta Beta Sigma completed an active year, taking first place in the Fourth War Bond drive with a total of $18,000; holding a Valentine party for the children from the Home of Benevolence, a picnic at Alum Rock park with alumni members. They will close the year with a senior breakfast at O'Brien's on June 18.

Pest Control

Talks on pest control will be given in the large lecture hall in the Science building at 8 o'clock Tuesday night and from 10 to 12 o'clock Wednesday morning.

SENIOR SNEAK — The juniors have a part in this Spartan tradition and this year (under new war-time rules) they have the opportunity of a real sneak. How about it juniors? Will meet on the Quad lawn at 12:30 to discuss plans. If interested, please come. —Clinton St. John INTER - SOCIETY COUNCIL: New and old representatives, do not forget the meeting tonight. See the notice on the Inter-society bulletin board.

—Marge Howell

The teams will wind up competition this week with games scheduled to be played this afternoon, Wednesday, and Friday. The most decisive game will be played today between first place Theta Mu and the second place Sluggers. The frat team leads the league with four straight wins against no defeats while their opponents have a three and one record.

Wednesday's tilt will be between the Spartan Daily and Avalon squads, and the season will close with a big doubleheader on Friday. Theta Mu tangles with the Spartan Daily and the Sluggers with the Avalons.

Jack Maughmer, Theta Mu infielder, took the batting lead from Ed Marion of the Daily team with an average of .666. He has 8 hits in 12 trips.

The strikeout leadership remains the same with Ed Loudon and Rex Maddy each whiffing five men last Friday. They now have 39 and 37 victims respectively.

THE BIG TEN

Maughmer, Theta Mu	12	8	.666
Cassingham, Slgrs.	14	9	.642
Marion, Daily	8	5	.625
Huck, Sluggers	14	7	.500
Maddy, Theta Mu	20	10	.500
Nunes, Sluggers	8	4	.500
